The Trip of a Railroad Prince.

Cornelius Vanderbilt Jr., son of the millionaire Railroad King, arrived in this city from Japan in the steamship China. He is accompanied by George N. Terry of New York, who travels with him as a companion. Mr. Vanderbilt went to China a few months ago on a run for the benefit of his health, which has not been good for a number of years. Mr. Vanderbilt was an intimate friend of Mr. Greeley, and was in utter ignorance of the latter's death until he landed here. He was terribly shocked at the intelligence and will leave for the East at once.
